

ANDREW HANDRICK REVIEWS

*"pleasantly unique",
"a solid, well written album"*

– Room With A View Recordings, UK

–
"a lovely, reflective and subdued look into Andrew's world that is reminiscent of an Elliott Smith record but far less tortured"

– Party In Kingston, Canada

–
*"Pick of the Fortnight"
"he might well be worth watching"*

– Jackie Hayden, Hot Press Magazine, Ireland

–
"it's a great album that will perk up any soft rock/folk rock collection."

– SpaceJunkies Magazine, USA

–
"This is one great CD. If you don't own a copy yet then buy one now!"

– Melodic Revolution, USA

–
"I was asked recently for the name of an artist or band who really impressed me this year and I said Andrew Handrick"

– 2 U I Bestow, Irish Music Blog

–
*"Andrew Handricks selection of catchy tunes show why he is building himself a nice little rep
on the Dublin scene"*

– OnTheVerge, Ireland

–
"Andrew is a thoughtful, compassionate man who writes insightful, provocative lyrics and has a voice that's as smooth and strong as a pint of Guinness! Give Andrew's songs a listen when you have some time."

– Scully Love Promotion, Online

"The most important aspect of 'Distractions' is that the songs have this ability to immerse you into the song. When I listen to songs like 'Forever' and 'Just For Tonight' I'm completely immersed within the vocals, charm and sentimentality of the songs. Very few artists have the ability to do this but Andrew Handrick is one of them."

- 2 U I Bestow music blog, Peter N